

ON THE SPOT

At 6.45 an explosion tore through the family van

The victims were rushed to the Kurunegala hospital

Mrs. Karunasinghe could only ask why?

The youngest victims of the blast were less than a year old

One girl later succumbed to her injuries

The lives of the victims have been shattered

The police believe a personal dispute was the cause

The front portion of the family home was reduced to rubble