

Che'nelle Says 'I Do'

Remember Che'nelle? The girl who became a hit in Sri Lanka with her track 'I fell in love with a DJ' has married dancer and dance instructor G. Madison.

Che'nelle is a Malaysian-Chinese and an Australian recording artist. In 2005 she was signed to Virgin Records America, an imprint of EMI.

Following the success of 'I fell in love with a DJ' Che'nelle went on world tours working with top producers including Charles Dixon.

In interviews given to the Sri Lankan media in 2010, Che'nelle said she always looked forward to perform in Sri Lanka one day.

Her husband G. Madison IV has been featured in films, television shows, and music videos. He has staged productions and dance showcases for prominent names such as BRAVO,

The 2005 Grammy Awards, 20th Century FOX's The Ex List, Seeing Stars, CW's Tyra Banks Show, Pussycat Dolls, SiTV's The DROP, The Choreographers' Carnival, and The Dance-Off. (ER)

Justin Keeps Fans Waiting In Dubai

How long can you sustain 15,000 die-hard Justin Bieber fans in a jam-packed stadium without the teen sensation?

The 19-year-old singing star kept thousands of fans waiting way past their bedtime on Saturday night (Sunday being a school day in the UAE) after arriving on stage nearly two hours late for a sold-out show. Fans waiting for the "Prince of Pop" finally could scream with joy when the ten minute countdown sign appeared. Bieber came on stage, to the deafening screams, playing his recent hit 'As Long As You Love Me'. It is reported that Bieber skipped 'One Less Lonely Girl' at his concert last weekend out of respect for the Muslim culture. (Emirates 24/7)

Katy Perry Launches Her Third Fragrance

Katy Perry looked every bit the regal pop princess, when she debuted her third fragrance 'Killer Queen' in New York recently. The 28-year-old singer was decked out in a strapless rose-patterned Thom Browne ball gown as she posed atop a throne at the James B. Duke Mansion. The nine-time Grammy nominee wore her raven locks side-parted and curled and rocked a matching baroque manicure for the unveiling.

Clearly inspired by the Queen of Hearts from Alice in Wonderland, Katy finished her royal look with Lorraine Schwartz bracelets, Chopard earrings, and David Yurman rings. Perry was joined at the perfume event by VP Global Marketing Coty Steve Mormoris, who got into the Killer Queen aesthetic thanks to a powdered wig. The I Kissed a Girl hitmaker, born Kathryn Elizabeth Hudson, put out Purr in 2010 and followed it up with Meow a year later. (Daily Mail)

Boston bands Aerosmith and promoter Live Nation and TD Garden said. "Like so many other proud Bostonians who have been extremely generous, we are honoured to step up and do our part to help the victims and their families," said Donnie Wahlberg of former boy band New Kids on the Block.

"Hopefully this event will not only raise money, but spirits as well," Wahlberg said in a statement. Boston-born Taylor said, "Everyone involved has responded from the heart in a spontaneous and simultaneous desire to be there and to do what we can for the city we love." (Reuters)

Other artists lined up for "Boston Strong: An Evening of Support and Celebration" includes singers Jimmy Buffett and Carole King, the band Boston and the J. Geils Band, concert promoters Live Nation and TD Garden said.
